

Card Match Game

"One, if by land, and two, if by sea" phrase was coined by the American poet in the poem Paul Revere's Ride.	Henry W. Longfellow
_____ was preparing his mission and arranged with three fellow patriots to set up a light signal in case if British troops started their advance to Concord.	Paul Revere
The _____ was chosen as the location for the signal because it was the tallest building in Boston and a fellow patriot was able to gain access in the middle of the night.	Old North Church

Cut table into 6 different cards to create a card matching game for pages 8-9 of The LOOK Book, Freedom Trail.